CANCELLATIONS BY US

Minimum numbers

Each trip has a set minimum number, you'll find this on the booking page of your trip. Our trips are normally fully booked, however if we do not reach minimum numbers we may be required to cancel your trip.

If we do not meet the minimum numbers 1 month before the start of your trip, we will cancel your trip and refund your booking.

If we are required to cancel we will not be responsible for any costs incurred from travel arrangements, accommodation etc. We recommend that you book flexible travel options and have appropriate travel insurance. Our guides are faced by this same problem and we are happy to notify you when we book their travel.

Adverse Weather

With all trips, we need to remain flexible and adaptable. We will strive to stick to our itineraries provided at the time of booking, however we may be required to make changes to the itinerary to accommodate the weather conditions. No refunds or rescheduling will be offered for changes to the itinerary.

Whilst we can plan and prepare for many things, operating in this type of environment is always weather dependant. We will monitor the weather leading up to the start of the journey and during. We will not start the journey if we feel the weather will be too challenging for the group's ability or unsafe. Where options are available these will be discussed to gain a group decision. In this instance we will use our extensive local knowledge to ensure we get on the water each day. We will camp in rain or shine, however in the unlikely event it is unsafe to do so, we will arrange bunk house accommodation, this could be an additional cost of £30 a night.

If during the trip we are required to cancel your trip due to unsafe weather conditions, we will look to reschedule or resume the trip at later date.

If we are required to cancel due to weather, we will not be responsible for any costs incurred from travel arrangements, other accommodation etc.

TRIP PRICE

We reserve the right to alter the prices of any of the holidays shown on our website. You will be advised of the final price of the trip at the point of booking. There will be no increase of the trip price once booked without prior approval from the clients or group.

Prices are subject to currency conversion rates, the final balance payable will be based on the currency conversion rate at the time your final payment.

USAGE OF OWN KIT ON TRIPS:

You are responsible for your own kit and equipment during your trip, any personal losses to kit and equipment will not be reimbursed by Rapid Skills. You are advised to hold your own insurance for equipment loss/damage.

USAGE OF KIT AND EQUIPMENT PROVIDED BY RAPID SKILLS:

Please look after any kit and equipment you are given to use as part of your activity as if it was your own. Should any excessive damages/losses occur out of negligence or lack of care we may seek to recover the cost from either yourself or your group.
